No. 7.

Council House,
New Delhi.
10th March, 1936.

Your Highness,

The Chancellor's Office has put up to me a list of the States from whom contributions towards the funds of the Chamber of Princes have not been received regularly for some time. I was sorry to see in that list the name of Your Highness' State also, with a sum of Rs. 1600/- shown in arrears, including the subscription for the year 1936.

It is quite unnecessary for me to write at any great length to convince Your Highness how urgent and pressing is our need for funds at the present moment. We have had to incur very heavy expenditure last year, both in England and in India, in connection with the Indian Constitutional Reforms, and my task as Chancellor has been particularly difficult in so far as the funds at our disposal were disproportionately small compared to the gravity of the occasion, and the importance of the work for which money was needed. In the circumstances, I found I could carry on the work last year only by taking a loan of £ 4000/- from my Government. While it has been, and will always be, a matter of genuine satisfaction to me to render whatever service I can to the cause of our Order, the position, I feel constrained to say has now arisen when even to carry on the ordinary work of the Chamber, I shall have to appeal to my brother Princes for their sympathy and support.

The work in connection with the Reforms has reached the final stage. During the last five years we have had to spend large sums of money and undergo great trouble and inconvenience to safeguard in every possible manner the rights of the States. But the present stage of the work, if I may say so, is the most important as it has to deal with the Instrument of Accession. That document will be the Magna Carta of the States and it is imperative, and I say so, with all the emphasis at my command, that we should be properly advised legally and otherwise at this stage. If at this stage, we weaken in our effort, we shall lose the benefit of all the work which has been done so far. But no work can be done without money. There is no necessity whatever for any special donation if the arrears of the subscriptions could be collected. I, therefore, beg of Your Highness most earnestly to come to the help of the Chamber by ordering that the money due from Your Highness' State, by way of annual contributions be remitted to me immediately. As the time is pressing and the entire work has been held up for lack of funds, I am sure, Your Highness, realising the gravity of the situation, will take immediate steps in this connection. By doing so Your Highness will put me under a debt of obligation as otherwise it will not be possible for me to fulfil the duties entrusted to me by Your Highness and my other brother Princes as Chancellor of the Chamber.

Yours very sincerely,

BHUPINDRA SINGH,

Maharaja Dhiraj of Patiala,
Chancellor, Chamber of Princes.

Circular No. 9

New Delhi.
The 9th May, 1936.

Your Highness,

The Chancellor's Office has put up to me a list of the States showing the position of each with regard to the annual subscription to the Chamber Fund and I am glad to see that Your Highness' State is up-to-date with its subscription and has only the subscription for the year 1936 to pay.

But some of the States are in arrears with their subscription and the Standing Committee have issued a separate appeal a copy of which is enclose It is hoped that they also will soon be in the happy position, in which Your Highness' State is, of being uptodate with their subscription.

To Your Highness my simple request is that you may be pleased to order the payment at your earliest convenience of the annual subscription for the year 1936. Needless to add that I shall be highly obliged to you for doing so.

Hoping this will find Your Highness in the enjoyment of excellent health,

Circular No. 8

NEW-DELHI,
The 9th May, 1936.

YOUR HIGHNESS,

Although the last circular for the collection of arrears of contribution was issued as recently as the 10th of March, 1936, on taking over charge of the office of Chancellor, His Highness the Maharaj-Rana Sahib of Dholpur, found that the finances of the Chamber had run to such a low ebb that a complete deadlock was well within sight. At our meeting held on the 16th April, 1936, we considered the matter in all its aspects and decided to pull our weight with His Highness the Chancellor with a view to devising means for the immediate recovery of arrears outstanding against a majority of the members of the Chamber.

As Your Highness is well aware, the most important work of obtaining best legal advice on the draft of the Instrument of Accession is in hand; and the utter financial breakdown at this particular juncture is a matter of grave concern to all well-wishers of our Order. A large amount to the tune of over two and a half lakhs of rupees has accumulated as arrears of subscription; and the appeal for funds issued only last March failed to make any appreciable impression on the colossal amount of arrears.

In connection with the work of the Instrument of Accession a decision of vital importance was made at our last informal meeting, whereby individual States in general would be helped by advice and guidance in formulating their claims for special reservations to suit their peculiar requirements and conditions. But without money nothing can be achieved. With all the emphasis at our command we, therefore, personally prefer this joint

As no remittance has so far been received and the need for money is pressing for reasons fully explained in the enclosure to that Circular, I shall feel very grateful if you will kindly take personal interest in the matter and have the subscription remitted to this Office at your earliest convenience.

Dear Mr.Kesavaiengar,

I am desired to forward herewith for favour of disposal copy of a Circular No.368, dated 12th January 1937, from His Highness the Chancellor, Chamber of Princes, New Delhi, on the subject of His Highness the Maharaja's subscription to the Chamber Fund for the year 1937.

Yours sincerely,

No. 368

New Delhi.
January, 1937

C

Your Highness,

Gratefully conscious as I am of the fact that Your Highness is uptodate with your subscription towards the Chamber Fund, I owe a special word of apology to Your Highness for troubling you at the thresh-hold of the new year with a request to be so good as to remit your subscription for 1937 as expeditiously as possible.

As Your Highness is probably aware we have had a year of very heavy expenditure on account of various meetings and conferences held in Bombay and Delhi during the latter half of the year 1936, and the prospect immediately before us is also one of heavy financial responsibilities. During the months of January and February several meetings of committees have been fixed and the Session of the Chamber is also taking place next month, in connection with all of which heavy expenditure will have to be incurred. Moreover, an eminent legal counsel has been brought out from England to advise the Chamber of Princes collectively on the text of the Instrument of Accession as well as the general reservations and limitations necessary to be made by all the States.

Under these special circumstances, I appeal to Your Highness to be so good as to order the immediate remittance of Your Highness' subscription to the Chamber Fund for the year 1937.

Trusting this finds Your Highness in the enjoyment of excellent health,

Yours sincerely,

UDAIBHAN SINGH,

Maharaj-Rana of Dholpur,
Chancellor, Chamber of Princes.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness The Maharaja of Mysore.
